

Senor Don Gato +chords

Am G Am
Oh Senor Don Gato was a cat
Am G Am
On a high red roof Don Gato sat
E Dm
He went there to read a letter, Meow, meow, meow
Dm Am
Where the reading light was better, Meow, meow, meow
E Am
'Twas a love note for Don Gato

Am G Am
I adore you wrote the lady cat
Am G Am
Who was fluffy, white and nice and fat
E Dm
There was not a sweeter kitty, Meow, meow, meow
Dm Am
In the country or the city, Meow, meow, meow
And she said she'd wed Don Gato

Am G Am
Oh, Don Gato jumped so happily
Am G Am
He fell off the roof and broke his knee
E Dm
Broke his ribs and all his whiskers, Meow, meow, meow
Dm Am
And his little solar plexus, Meow, meow, meow
E Am
'Ay Caramba!' cried Don Gato

Am G Am
Then the doctors all came on the run
Am G Am
Just to see if something could be done
E Dm
And they held a consultation, Meow, meow, meow
Dm Am
About how to save their patient, Meow, meow, meow
E Am
How to save Senor Don Gato

Am G Am
But in spite of everything they tried
Am G Am
Poor Senor Don Gato up and died
E Dm
And it wasn't very merry, Meow, meow, meow
Dm Am
Going to the cemetery, Meow, meow, meow
E Am
For the ending of Don Gato

Am G Am
When the funeral passed the market square
Am G Am
Such a smell of fish was in the air
E Dm
Though his burial was slated, Meow, meow, meow
Dm Am
He became reanimated, Meow, meow, meow
E Am
He came back to life, Don Gato

Olé!
